PRICE FIVE CENTS.

THE BROWNIES IN THE PHILIPPINES. BY PALMER COX.

1 When Bohol's shore the Brownies won
The place with wolves was overrun.

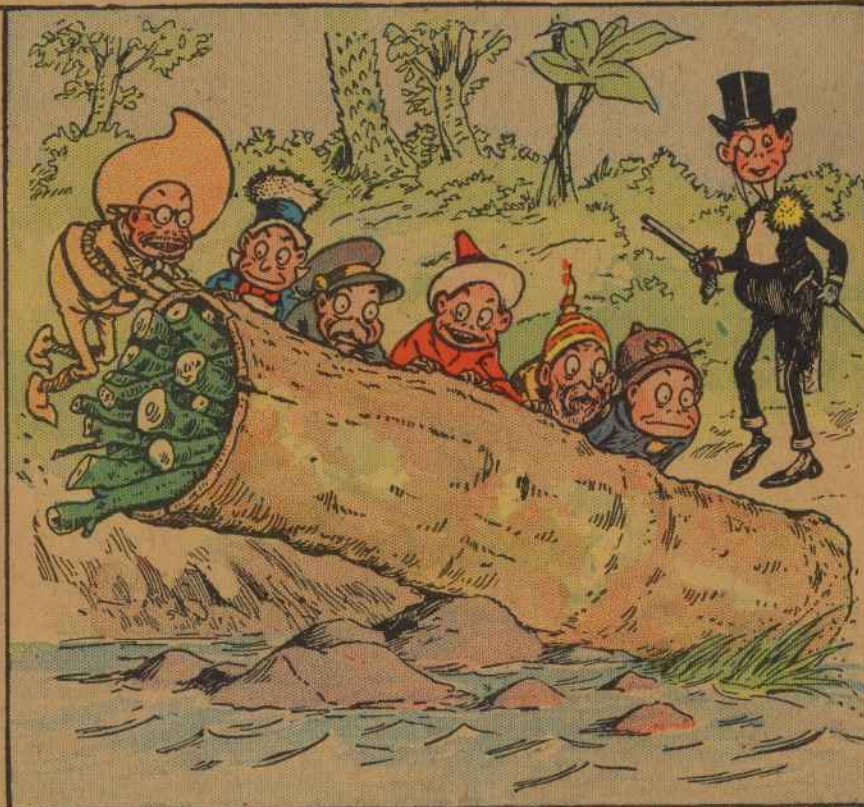

2 And so a number volunteered
To hunt them till the isle was cleared.

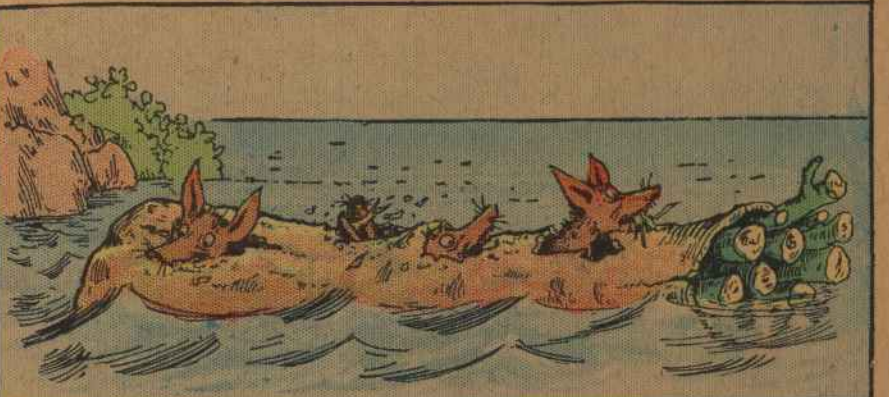

3 Ere long a pack was started out
And chased for hours the woods about.

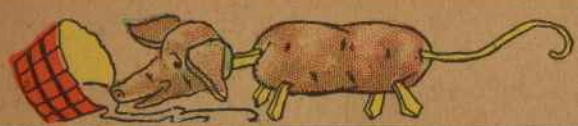

4 A hollow log upon the shore
At last received some three or four.

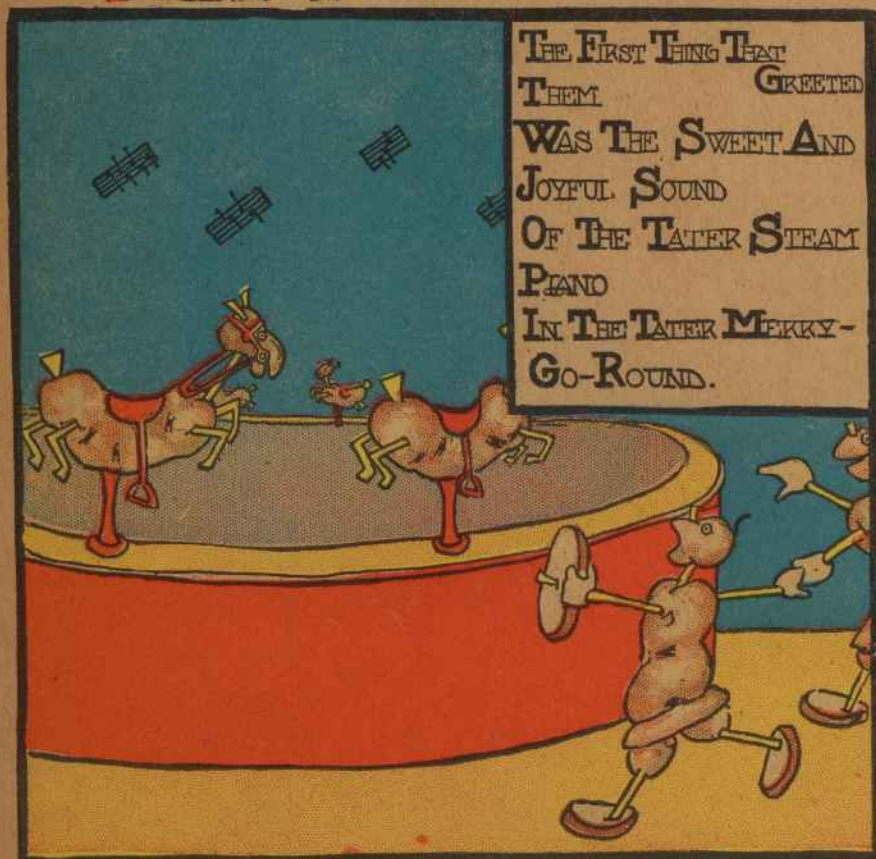

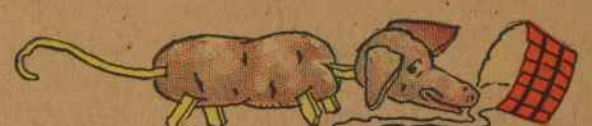

5 And when all exit was denied
The Brownies gave it to the tide.

6 But wolves know how to tear and bite
And soon they gnawed their way to light
Then seated on the log in style
They drifted to another isle.

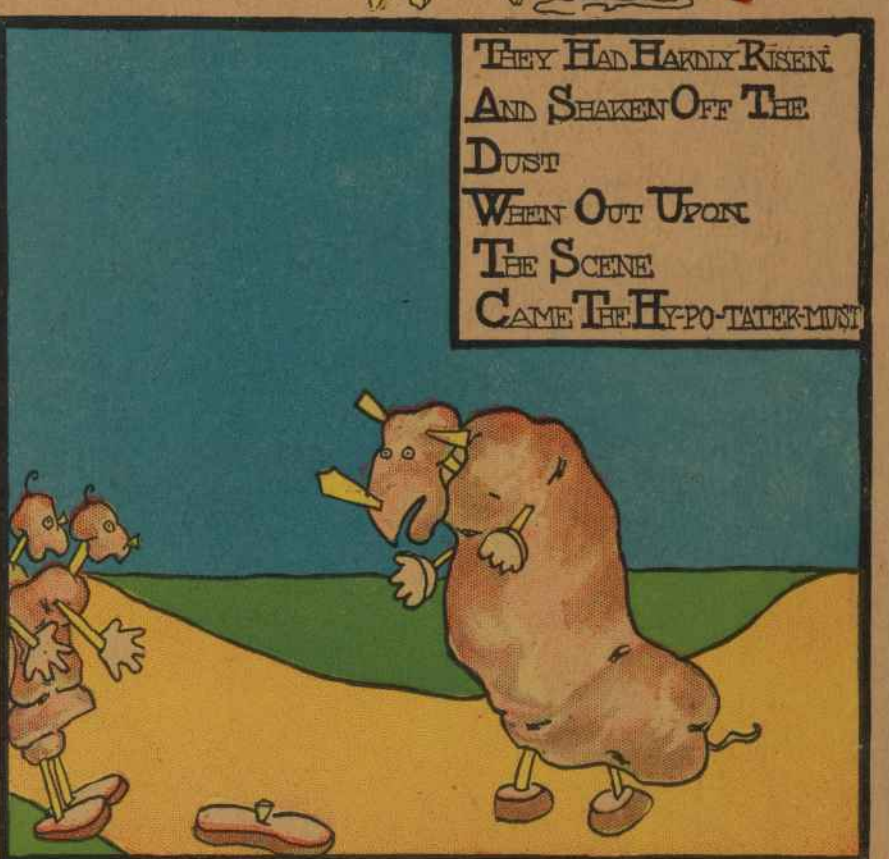

SMALL POTATOES.

THE FIRST THING THAT THEM GREETED WAS THE SWEET AND JOYFUL SOUND
OF THE TATER STEAM
PIANO
IN THE TATER MEKKY-
GO-ROUND.

THEY HELD ON TO THEIR HOBBYS
BUT WHEN ONLY HALF
WAY ROUND
THE ROT-TATER-KY MOTION
THREW THE TWINNIES TO THE GROUND.

THEY HAD HARDLY RISEN
AND SHAKEN OFF THE DUST
WHEN OUT UPON
THE SCENE
CAME THE HY-PO-TATER-MINT

WITH A RASOL AND SMILE
SERENE
A LITTLE WAY BEHIND
CAME THE
HY-PO-TATER-MINT
THE LARGEST OF HER KIND.

AND A BIG TATER BABY
WITH A LITTLE TATER
BOON.
FED HER LITTLE BABY
WITH A TATER
MACAROON.
